FOREST HILLS, NEW YORK

DR. LEO R. RYAN

June 1954

Dear Friends:

During the year much has been written and said about teen-age delinquency. Certain papers have seized upon the opportunity of exploiting a nation-wide situation by exaggerations of such proportions that the general public has been led to feel that there has been a collapse in the functioning of our public schools. Other papers with a sense of social responsibility have frequently publicized the outstanding contributions of our high school youth to their schools and community.

Side by side with the thoughtless and anti-social acts of a relatively small few stand the hundreds of our boys and girls who have distinguished themselves by their faithful and devoted loyalty to their parents, their school and to themselves. Day by day they have performed their obligations successfully without the benefit of headline publicity. Day by day they have brought honor to themselves by their participation in school work, extra-curricular activities; community projects. Day by day they reflect the commendable efforts of the home, church and school to raise young men and women of character and integrity.

We are proud of you, the members of our Senior Class, for what you have achieved working as a group and for the individual contributions you have made to the welfare of the school and of the community.

Sincerely yours,

Class History

Dear Uncle Sam

Thank you for the present you sent me for graduation. I know that you must have been surprised to learn that I was graduating in January instead of June. In fact, it was a quick decision on my part because I didn't know whether I really wanted to leave the school early or not. Of course, I knew I would miss the senior activities I had looked forward to all through high school, but I thought that the time I would save would make the sacrifice worthwhile.

When I came back to school in September, I was put into one of the three senior sections in the cafeteria. We were an off-term class and there were only eighty seven of us. However, Mr. Runge called a senior meeting, and we were nicknamed "the class that wasn't supposed to be." You can't imagine how happy we were to learn that we were going to have graduation right here in the school. We were going to have enough room, too — ten seats apiece for our friends and relatives in the auditorium! We claimed the distinction of being the last January graduating class at Forest Hills High School. We proudly displayed our senior hats and pins while the seventh-tenners looked enviously at us.

We soon organized a senior class complete with officers. Joan Reinisch was our president, Anthony Williams, vice-president, Judith Messenger, treasurer, and Nancy Zion, secretary. These officers worked hard to get us the same privileges as other senior classes. They were so enthusiastic about their offices that we were able to enjoy activities that classes before us had never had. One of these was a skating party organized by chairman Joan Freedman. Another was special reserved seats for Play Production's "Night of January Sixteenth," in which two of our fellow seniors, Marty Ingerman and Myriam Brun, played leading parts. One ambitious senior, Harry Silverman, formed a Greeters Committee, whose purpose was to take new students around the school and make them feel at home. Our Prom Chairmen, Stanley Rustin, Giselle Baron, and Judy Samuels, planned a Senior Prom for us in the teachers' cafeteria. We were even allowed to have a section of the yearbook of the class of June '54 reserved for us. Our Yearbook editors were Alberta Ratzan, Barbara Lew and Myriam Brun. The latter also distinguished herself as editor of "Forest Leaves," and our own Joan Reinisch was business editor of the "Beacon."

Quickly we made friends with our fellow graduates. There was great excitement when Marty Ingerman won first prize in the "Daily News" Baby Quip contest. Barbara Novick M.C.'d a panel discussion on foreign education, in which Giselle Baron took part. Many of us took the placement test at Queens College, and we found it to be more of an endurance test than a measurement of knowledge. We filled out college applications and hoped to be accepted into the school of our choice. We applauded Alberta Ratzan's valedictory address and we said goodbye and good luck on January twenty-ninth when we were handed our diplomas.

Uncle Sam, send our best regards to our other cousins. Tell them we shall hold the gift of democracy proudly, as they have done in the past. Thanks for the wonderful education.

Your loving nieces and nephews,

Ladies and gentlemen, this is your favorite reporter coming to you from the entrance of world renowned Forest Hills High School. Today, January 28th, 1985, Americans all over the country will see the dedication of the Forest Hills Hall of Fame, which has been built in honor of the prominent personalities who attended Forest Hills High School.

Many of the important guests have not yet arrived, since the official ceremony is scheduled to begin at two-thirty. Just a minute! An alert member of our staff has just spotted the greenbacked car of the President of the Bank of the United States, Judith Messenger. Lolling on the rear cushions of this luxurious car is the Vice-President, Anthony Williams, counting the freshly minted bills.

People are beginning to pour in from all directions. I think we have just enough time to introduce you to some of the celebrities in the crowd. Now approaching our microphone is the Nobel Prize-winning physicist, Joan Weingarten.

"Dr. Weingarten, would you give us your opinion on your new project X?"

I'm so sorry, ladies and gentlemen, that we are unable to catch Dr. Weingarten's comments, but we are having a little disturbance in our equipment. That international playboy, Leonard Lampert, has just landed on the lawn in his chromium plated helicopter. Seated beside him is his companion, Charles Shapiro, the President of Hialeah. We shall have to pause while the technician tries to get rid of the static.

The Supreme Court Justice, Barbara Lew, has just greeted the Dean of Vassar, Alberta Ratzan, after an absence of many years. This is their first reunion since their graduation from Forest Hills High School in January 1954.

Ladies and gentlemen, a long procession of black Rolls Royces is coming down the driveway. The Director of the Committee for the Improvement of Inter-Social Relations Between Nations (ISRBN), Harry Silverman, is helping Nancy Zion, the U.N. Secretary-General, out of her car. Stepping down from the next limousine, comes the French delegate, Giselle Baron. Here is the Colombian delegate, Martha Stein, with the Ecuador delegate, Lillian Ycaza

Prophecy

After a brief silence, the crowd has begun to cheer wildly. This is the moment we have all been waiting for. Our first woman President is arriving in her car, blowing kisses to the throngs of people. As she steps out she is followed by her personal doctor, Dr. Marion Sussman, and her assistants, Arlene Ekelman and Audrey Ramsey

Everyone has adjourned to the auditorium now, where the "Syncopated Six," led by Maestro Bernard Parness, and including Judy Samuels, Sheila Multz, George Sinaburger, Sheldon Lantenberg, and George Bernstein are beginning to play their theme song, "Let Us Raise a Song." This famous sextet has just completed a five-week stand at the Central Park Mall. They are now breaking into a snappy circus song. Tumbling out from behind the curtain is the daring acrobatic team of Pat Cronin, Judy Faber, and Rhoda Hyman. These agile ladies, who last season displayed their ease on the trapeze at Madison Square Garden, have formed a pyramid with the Forest Hills banner on the top

Did you hear that blast, ladies and gentlemen? Emerging from a cloud of dust is Hollywood star Marty Ingerman, publicizing his forthcoming picture, "Doc, Can I B-shale Now?" The script was written by the best-selling author Myriam Brun. All his publicity stunts are the work of that wonder advertising woman, Leatrice Simpson

Now that the audience has settled down, the band plays Tchaikowsky's "Swan Lake." A breath taking silence comes over the crowd as "Twinkle Toes" Marilyn Miller, the prima ballerina of the Sadler's Wells Ballet Company, begins to dance

The whole program is being hailed as a huge success, as President Reinisch prepares to make here dedication speech. She steps up to the podium and we hear her express the hope that peace will reign in our democracy forever more

That will be all, ladies and gentlemen. You have seen and heard the great personalities of the nation.

Last Will and Testament

We, the graduating class of January, 1954, being of educated minds and warped bodies, after cramming for our exams, burning our review books, and burying our hats in a drawer, do leave the following items to those who remain either by force or by their own volition . . .

Mr Ritchie .....	A Roxanne to "On Guard" for
Miss Stedman .....	A ham sandwich and a copy of "Richard Feverel"
Mrs. Greenheld and Mrs. Vaughan .....	A place in our hearts
Mr. Favalli ..	The newest book of Sammy Levenson's jokes.

PART II ESSAY QUESTIONS — ANSWER ALL QUESTIONS

1. Publications hold an important position in the life of Forest Hills High School.
  - a. Name one publication that we saw for the first as seniors and two others that we saw when we were freshmen looking for the swimming pool
  - b. Name at least five people associated with these publications.

Answers

- 1.a. Parading in a blue cover, the Social Studies Journal came out for the first time this year. The old reliables include, of course, the Beacon, Forest Leaves, Potpourri, Math-Science Journal, and naturally this yearbook which is costing you $4.
- b. Active in the Beacon are Ray Bach, Sandy Bahn, David A. Leibowitz, Peter Gardiner, Richard Schatten, Barbara Rosenberg who compose the managing board
In the pot of Potpourri are Barbara Finkelstein, Robert Service, Ray Bach, and David A. Leibowitz, and Lee Cottrell.
The politicians, muckrakers, and other parasites associated with the Social Studies Journal are Jerry Schneider, Michael Rogin, Lubert Stryer, Georgia Drimalas, Mark Schnur, Michael Leschnitzer, Ted Kleinman, Mina Goldman, and Lynne Sokol
The 4-D wizards working on the 2-D project called the Math-Science Journal are Richard Stillman, Edward Gray, Liz U'lan, and Ray Bach.
Anne Kanfer, Maxine Kessler, Judy Abbott and the eminent writer and engraver, Peter Helicz, are the literary geniuses behind Forest Leaves.
Glance at the frontispiece for the hard working servants of yours who have made possible what you are reading now, for better or worse.

2. Assembly and evening entertainment have always been popular with Hillites
  - a. Name at least two Play Pro plays and five people associated with them.
  - b. Name at least one Music Department production and five people associated with it.

Answers

- 2.a. In our more youthful days, we saw production such as the "Barretts of Wimpole Street", "Out of the Fring Pan", and "Midsummer Night's Dream". Since we were nonentities at the time, we list no members of the Class of 1954 as having participated.
Suddenly in the show "Three for the Money" our talents emerged. Peter Wexler's magnificent sets were first seen, and a great future for the lad (he was still a Junior then) was predicted. Selma Keith proved herself capable in advertising and make up.

But it was not long until we dominated the scene. That was in the production of "The Night of January 16", where the talents of Barbara Finkelstein, Lowell Citron, Bob Rose, Phil Litrel, and Howie Hirsch were obvious. Other important contributors were Bea Minkus, Barbara Orgler, Edward Fink, Steve Young, Dorianne Kurz, Jimmy Hanrahan, Roberta Ehrlich, Marie Weigand, Rosalind Barker, Sue Dorfman, Carol Scheer, and Lynne Sokol; also Dave Waxberg, Steve Greene, Paul Rait, Judy Loewenthal, Bill Beal, Eleanor Mandler.

- b. The Spring Musicale of 1953 will be an event long remembered. The band, the orchestra, and the chorus were superb in their presentation of "Down in the Valley." In this production were:
  - (1) Bob Hoffman, Hedy Schaeffer, Howie Kovitz, Artie Ashman, Dick Klafner, Joel Gilbert, Howie Stein, Paul Gomperz, Ray Bach, Dick Barrett, Phyllis Passes, Sam Feldman, Artie Raskin (all play first stand: first trumpet, first trombone, etc.) in band and orchestra.
  - (2) Jim Hanrahan, Loretta Cohen, Joyce Graff, Esther Grosswald (all are in chorus).

3. From the 3 B's of Music, we come to athletics
  - a. Name the 3 B's of athletics and at least six he-men associated with them.
  - b. Define: "Deuce", "harriers", "goalie", and mention six he-men connected with them.
  - c. Red, Yellow, Blue, and White are to Forest Hills High as stripes are to the Army. What do these colors refer to?

Answers

- 3 a. Basketball, baseball, and bowling are the 3 B's of athletics. Active in basketball are: George Jenkins, Rudy Schmidt, Howie Oppenheim, Jim Pettit, Norm Zelenko, Peter Harris; in baseball Artie Ashman, George Jenkins, Bob Blatt, Richard Huntington, Phil Stolzenberg, Norm Hirsch, Dick Grano, Barry Leff, Charlie Cacioppo; in bowling Bob Gimpel, Joel Gilbert, Phil Stolzenberg, Dick Page.
  - b. "Deuce" — tennis — Herbert Neirick, Steve Segal, Skippy Pines.
 "Harriers" — track — Marty Frank, Dick Rosenthal, John Shilling.
 "Goalie" — soccer — Peter Harris, Charlie Cacioppo, Carl Hans, George Jenkins.
  - c. As the freshman evolves to a higher form, Sophomore, his health education uniform changes from bold pink to a more restrained yellow. This challenging yellow changes to blue, a more noble color, when the one time Freshman becomes a Junior. Finally, the highest form of life is reached when the blue changes to the white of Seniors.
4. Social activities are the big talk of the school. We have had many dances in our high school career.
    - a. Name at least three dances we had and mention the particular attraction of each
    - b. Mention five people who played an important role in organizing the dances.

- 4.a. Black Magic — Hallowe'en Dance.

"Sensational!"...acclaimed Sandy Bahn, leading drama critic of the N. Y. Times. "Wonderful entertainment"...was the unanimous opinion of leading theatre critics hailing the trial run of the new play written by Howie Hirsch, "Flanagan's Spectrum".

Crowds were gathering under the marquee of the Majestic Theatre. At the entrance stood Steve Young, noted commentator, greeting the celebrities as they entered the theatre. One of the first arrivals of the evening was Phil Litrel, successful Shakespearean actor, who made his way backstage to wish the cast good luck. Admiring eyes turned as Fran Shulman, fashion buver for Saks Fifth Avenue entered, dressed in a metallic silver sheath, and accompanied by her two imported French poodles. Close on her heels came Rosalie Zobel and Steve Werhel, presidents of Barnard and Columbia.

The crowd's attention was diverted by the appearance of a fleet of limousines carrying the most prominent diplomats of the nation. The first nighters' eyes focused on Lubert Strver, who got out of the lead car. Mr. Stryer, renowned muckraker, had just returned from Minneapolis where he had been investigating corrupt elections. Accompanying him were Mina Goldman, President of the United Nations General Assembly, and Senator Elfride Kaniuk. Filing out of the limousines came Ted Kleinman, Billy Hsaio, and Mike Rogin, President of the CIO, all wearing the usual conservative black Homburg

Having recently returned from the Olympic Competitions at Moscow, our victorious soccer co-captains, Pete Harris and Carl Hans, were a welcome sight. Escorting them on the return trip were Diane Eskin and her squad of All-American Spirit Instillers, Arline Adelman, Ruth Schonholz, Micky Wodrig and Rosemarie Giambalvo.

Driving up in the latest Jaguar was Charles Cacioppo, President of the G.O. (we see no need to explain the meaning of this term since it is a very general organization).

At just about this time, Mr. Young started his series of interviews with well known personalities arriving from the house party at the Alpin Arms. As he strolled over to the group, the first person he spotted was the vivacious Lee Cottrell, popularly known as "The Hostess with the Mostes' on the Ball", who had come to New York to serve in this capacity for Mr. Alpin, President of the Alpin Hotel Association. Among the honored guests were Bobbe Orgler, eminent psychologist; Janet Greenstein, U.N. press secretary, Artie Ashman, renowned Master of the trombone; Alan Lederman and Jerry Weinstein, who have recently broken records at the National Swimming Meets; Hedy Schaeffer, petite piccolo player; Luise Schwed, whose latest masterpiece had rocked the crowds at Carnegie Hall; Mickey Basner, Chairman of the Committee for Interplanetary Social Events, accompanied by his secretary Eva Schwarz.

All this time, Fred Wolfe, Ira Gerstein, and Arnie Dubow were standing in a corner of the lobby, discussing chess moves. From a robot-chauffered space pacer, the eminent Richard Stillman and Edward Gray alighted. They are experimenting on the Four Dimensional Spectrum. That's the long and short of their appearance here. Next came Clare Spark, acclaimed Miss Allium Cepa (onions) of 1974. Following in swift succession came Bob Rose, Lewis Slater, Bill Palmer, Elizabeth Zeller and Elizabeth Ulman, Claude Charles and finally Ray Bach, editor of "Westinghouse, Today and Tomorrow".

The crowd parted slightly as Pete Gardiner and Richie Schatten ran breathlessly into the theatre, press cards in hat, hoping to get an exclusive on the players of the New York Knicks by interviewing the nucleus of the team, Jim Pettit and George Jenkins. Realizing that Nancy Barnes and Mable Siu would also be attending this gala affair the reporters made use of this opportunity to get further information of the newly formed Women's Professional Basketball Teams. Making a special effort to attend this premier came Dene Maydin, President of the Forest Association, accompanied by her crew of "Rangers", Rudy Schmidt, Norm Zelenko, and Howie Oppenheim.

A commotion was caused by the arrival of the scintillating comedienne, Sandy Beer. What a head on that girl? After this subsided, Mr. Young went on to interview Bea Minkus and Sue Dorfman, bill carrier for the Treasury Department of the Pentagon. Miss Minkus is currently the ambassador for the Irish-American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Night Janitors. Every year on the night of January 16th, Lowell Citron, Doriane Kurz, Eddy Link, Steve Green and Barbara Finkelstein, well-known actors, come to the aid of this oppressed group by giving a benefit performance.

Just as the excitement reached its peak the two leading equestrians of the nation, Ruth and Dori Lesser, entered. Adding incentive to the fervor of the crowd was the appearance of Lucy Hsaio who had gained renown as art editor of Theatre Arts. Along with Miss Hsaio the arrival of Rosemarie Daly and Carol Scheer caused much commotion. They had just returned from a world tour in the course of which they held exhibitions.

Upon hearing that many more celebrities had already taken their seats, the crowd was quick to follow. Hostesses Betty Ann Craig, Mary Phillips and Cathy O'Brien ushered them to their seats. From the rear of the theatre came the familiar call of David A. Leibowitz, "Hi Ya, Beautiful".

After the final curtain had been rung down, the backers, Dave and Mike Linder, hastened over to the box office to determine the financial results of the night's receipts from Ruth Abenheim and Jane Katt, who were up to their necks in dough. The cast had won praise even from Peter Helicz, dean of critics, who was so favorably impressed that he went back stage to congratulate the cast. He agreed to join them at Marie Weigand's Club Chez O'Toole (no cover charge) after writing his story.

It now became apparent that this opening night had been the most successful event of the past two decades. This play has qualities which signify a memorable contribution to our society. The idealism and optimism which have been portrayed this evening are symbolic of the younger generation of twenty years ago. Although the curtain will eventually fall on this fine production, the curtain will never fall on their achievements.

Alumni Association

FOREST HILLS HIGH SCHOOL

TO THE CLASS OF JUNE 1954:

Congratulations to you all as you reach a milestone — high school graduation. I think it is justifiable pride when, on behalf of Forest Hills' Alumni, I tell you that you are entering the adult world with more than a diploma. You have just spent four of the happiest years of your lives, but they are not really gone. For you, and we, have been so fortunate as to have grown up in an exceptionally fine school. When most of the facts we have learned are forgotten, there will remain memories, ideals, a way of life never quite to be forgotten.

It has become a tradition that every year, just before Christmas we gather at school to renew old friendships and acquaintances. There is always dancing, and refreshments are served. We keep up with the activities of our fellow graduates through the Alumni News. Membership dues in the F.H.H.S. Alumni Association are $1.25 per year or $5.00 for life time membership. We hope you all will join. Please send us personal news items for the "Alumni News" and inform us of change of address.

I want to thank those faculty members who have so graciously aided our Association, and who have helped to make it the friendly active group it is today. We are very grateful for the continuous help given to us by Dr. Ryan and Mr. Delman.

We, who have already crossed from this same graduation platform to the stage of life, sincerely wish you, the class of June 1954, good fortune and happiness in the years ahead.

Sincerely yours,

CHRIS GOLFINOPOULOS

President
